Suggested topics for starting a discussion or journal entry:

#1	#2
When we leave our weekly assembly, we represent Christ Jesus before the people we interact with. Based on your life, what do the people around you think of the Body of Christ? Does the way you view the church line up with what Scripture says about it?	In Philippians 4, Paul first instructs our hearts, then our minds, then our actions. Many times, Christians fall into the trap of choosing 1 out of the 3 to focus on. Read Philippians 4:1-9. What areas do you need to work on? Where are you doing well?
#3	#4	#5
Think about this week's hymn and about the morning service on Sunday. The church is built on Christ; we are His body. Which verse of this week's hymn makes you think the most and why?	Today, we finished Psalm 119, after focusing on it for a few weeks. Discuss some characteristics of a believer's relationship to the Word of God. Does your view of God's Word line up with Scripture? What sections of Psalm 119 do you relate to most?	The Lord is great, and greatly to be praised, and Today's Psalm reading reflects that. How does the greatness of the Lord relate to the local church? How can you prepare your heart to worship the God of Psalm 97 with other believers?

Things to pray about during the week:

- 1 Praise and thank Him for giving us His Word and His Church
- 2 For next Sunday's services to be a pleasing sacrifice of praise to God
- 3 For other church members who are hurting and struggling
- 4 That the Lord will protect & strengthen His body here in Casa Grande
- 5 For the people of Victory; pray using the church directory
